Dr Siraj Ali

Maharaja Restaurant

Benfleet SS7 1BG

Dr. Muhammad Siraj Ali came to the UK when he was 11 year's old, and worked in his teens whilst he was studying in school, at his older brother's restaurant, The Curry Centre, in North London. Back then, this was the only option in terms of a career move for many Bangladeshis.

However he wanted to move away and find an unsaturated market, and chose a small town in Essex to open his first restaurant. He becomes a pioneering force behind the introduction of Indian cuisine in the Essex region. He has opened 8 restaurants in Essex. In his successful 48-year career, he introduced Indian food to Thurrock, and has used his success and experiences to broaden cultural understanding and raise millions of pounds for charities in Bangladesh and the UK.

His passion to build bridges between cultures and communities has seen him become an ambassador for multi-cultural integration and charity work. Since 1995, Siraj has raised over £3 million for charity, with his charitable efforts having even seen his dishes flown to 150 UN troops in the Congo.

Dr Ali's successful restaurant was chosen by MPs to cater for the first ever Bangladesh Festival of Food and Culture at the House of Commons in 2001. In 2008, Dr Ali won the British Bangladeshi Who's Who 'Outstanding Contribution' Award. In 2009, he was a winner of the Channel 5 Awards for his long standing contribution to the British Bangladeshi Community. In 2011, Siraj received the British Bangladeshi Who's Who Award and in 2015, he was awarded by Currylife magazine for contribution to the catering and hospitality industry.

In 2018, Siraj was awarded an honorary doctorate by the University of Essex for his distinguished career, joining Rt Hon John Bercow MP, Speaker of the House of Commons, Dr Shirin Sharmin Chaudhury, Speaker of Jaty Sangshad, (Bangladesh Parliament), former UK Prime Minister Harold Wilson and former President of Chile, Her Excellency Michelle Bachelet, whose achievements are recognised by academics.
